

MUNICIPALITY OF TRENT HILLS

CANADA 150 HERITAGE SCAVENGER HUNT

Canada's 150th Birthday is an opportunity to celebrate the heritage of our communities. As a continuation of the celebration the next five properties are listed for the Canada 150 Scavenger Hunt.

Please provide addresses for the following properties:

1. This home was named "Burnside".
2. What flower is found in the decorative wood work at 62 Mill Street, Warkworth?
3. What prominent feature does one find at the entrance at 89 Old Hastings Road, Warkworth?
4. These two buildings have both served as Seymour Township Offices.
5. Name two heritage homes where local physicians have lived (anywhere in Trent Hills).

The first ten questions are listed below:

1. Which designated property built for Alexander Bonneycastle looks onto the Trent Canal?
2. Built in 1958 by a noted Canadian architect.
3. Built in 1935, this arts and crafts cottage has remained in the builder's family.
4. Built in 1881, this was a well-known Campbellford factory.
5. Owned by the McKelvie family for 90 years.
6. St. Andrew's Sunday School was held at this residence from 1897 to 1921.
7. An 1870 brick farmhouse with log addition, in the Hastings area.
8. First house built in Campbellford with electricity.
9. A solicitor for the Town of Campbellford lived here for over 50 years.
10. This "cottage" was home to a blacksmith.

Information to answer the questions can be obtained at the Trent Hills Heritage website, heritage brochures and by visiting properties.

Remember all submissions must be received by the Municipality no later than June 23, 2017.
