Share your thoughts to inform a decision about the tax rebate program for vacant commercial and industrial properties

Local municipalities are reviewing the implications of eliminating the Vacant Unit Property Tax Rebate program as part of efforts to better encourage use of vacant properties for the benefit of the community.

- Attend a 20-minute presentation at 5:30 p.m. by the County treasurer about the background on this program and the reasons for change.
- Connect directly with experts and treasurers from various local municipalities and the County.
- Complete a survey to share your feedback.
